Plastic loyalty card with white or transparent signature panel

Overview

Sometimes the cardholders have to leave their signatures on the loyalty card for verification. A signature panel on credit card is necessary because the normal plastic card cannot be wrote directly due to the glossy finish.

Signature panel is made of a kind of white or transparent ink that is screen printed according with the customized size and shape. On the panel the plastic id card holder can write necessary information as name, title, address and expiry date.
